Why is Malaysia the ideal Commodity Trading base?

- ✓ Malaysia is the 4th largest natural gas reserves holder in the Asia-Pacific region, producing almost 2% of the world's natural gas
- ✓ The country operates extensive liquefied natural gas (LNG) facilities and accounts for approximately 13% of the world's LNG exports, sold largely to Japan, South Korea and Taiwan
- ✓ Malaysia's oil reserves are currently ranked as the 3rd largest in Asia-Pacific region after China and India
- ✓ Malaysia is a net exporter of oil and gas with nearly 40% of Malaysia's total revenue derived from petroleum resources
- ✓ Malaysia is well-endowed with natural resources in areas such as agriculture, forestry and minerals. It is an exporter of natural and agricultural resources, the most valuable exported resource being petroleum
- ✓ In the agricultural sector, Malaysia is one of the top exporters of natural rubber and palm oil, which together with timber and timber products, cocoa, pepper, pineapple and tobacco dominate the growth of the sector

"Simplifying the Complexities"

LABUAN GLOBAL INCENTIVES FOR TRADING (GIFT) PROGRAMME FOR COMMODITY TRADING BUSINESSES

In line with Malaysia's aspiration to emerge as the regional oil and gas hub, Labuan Global Incentives for Trading (GIFT) programme was established in 2011 to encourage global companies to use Malaysia as an international trading base – providing attractive lower concessionary tax rates and less stringent qualifying criteria which competes with Singapore's Global Trader Programme.

The Labuan International Commodity Trading Company comes with a designed pack of incentives under the GIFT programme, which allows the trading of commodities, in any currency other than Ringgit Malaysia.

Commodities allowed under GIFT includes:

- ❖ Petroleum and petroleum-related products (including LNG)
- ❖ Agricultural commodities
- ❖ Refined raw materials
- ❖ Chemicals
- ❖ Minerals, including coals

Deal unlimited with Malaysians for petroleum, petroleum-related products and coal products, in any currency other than Ringgit Malaysia*

With the GIFT Programme, you can enjoy the following benefits:

- ❖ Establish more than one operational offices anywhere in Malaysia
- ❖ Corporate tax of only 3% on chargeable profits
- ❖ 100% tax exemption for foreign directors' fee earned
- ❖ 50% tax rebate for employment of expatriates' income earned
- ❖ Tax exemption on interest payout with no withholding tax
- ❖ Tax exemption on royalties payout with no withholding tax
- ❖ Tax exemption on dividends payout

Upon successfully obtaining the GIFT license, you are exempted for the first 5 years qualifying criteria:

- ❖ Minimum annual turnover of USD 100 million
- ❖ Minimum local business spend of RM 3 million
- ❖ Employ at least 3 professional traders

At CP Trust, we aim to "Simplify the Complexities for your Business Investment in Malaysia"!

For more information on the GIFT programme, other licenses and services provided, kindly visit www.labuanbusiness.com. Feel free to drop us an enquiry.
